

Ontario's Kelly Dearborn on the move!

The Ontario Amateur Wrestling Association is pleased to announce that Kelly Dearborn has been appointed as the Director of Games and Sport for the Canada Games Council.

Kelly is the former Technical Director for the Canadian Amateur Wrestling Association. Most recently he was Senior Program Officer at Sport Canada where he was responsible for overall management of the Government of Canada's missions to major international Games including the Olympic and Commonwealth Games (Torino, Beijing). Kelly was also a mission team member to the 2002 Salt Lake City Olympics and the 2004 Athens Olympic Games.

Kelly is presently the Vice-President Technical of the Ontario Amateur Wrestling Association, a volunteer position, as well as being involved in the National Coaching Certification Program as a Learning Facilitator.

For a full overview on Kelly's new role with the Canada Games, go to:

<http://www.canadagames.ca/Content/NewsHome.asp?mnu=5&ItemID=53518>

Congratulations Kelly. Good Luck!